Headteacher's Awards

Pips

Octavia for doing really well in phonics lessons and hearing and saying the sound that words begin with.

Acorns

Brooke for trying really hard in all her learning and writing an excellent re-telling of Jack and the Beanstalk.

Cherry

Neda for applying her knowledge in maths to answer reasoning problems. She also helps her peers when they are finding maths a challenge.

Beech

Glory for always being a polite and respectful member of Beech Class. Every single day we notice her positivity.

Maple

Poppy for writing a great conclusion in science, after investigating how we see things.

Willow

Luke L for making great improvements in his guided reading comprehension. Well Done!!

Fir

Alfie for great effort writing his newspaper report. He used great vocabulary and levels of formality. Well Done!!

Rowan

Sonny for keeping everyone's spirits high with his positive, bubbly attitude and fantastic kindness.

Oak

Spencer for always being thoughtful and kind even when it is not appreciated. All the adults notice his thoughtfulness, thank you.

Mrs Voigt

As many of you would have noticed Mrs Voigt is currently absent from school. Sadly her mother passed away and she is currently in South Africa. Mrs Voigt will be back with us as soon as possible and we are sure that you join us in thinking about her and her family.

Year 5 Parent Meeting - Leavers 2020

Mrs Alsamman and Miss Roberts would like to invite parents in our current Year 5 cohort to a meeting on Wednesday 21st May at 2.45pm. This will take place in the hall and is to begin the planning process for the children's leaving celebrations in 2020.

Year 6 SATs Week 13th May - 16th May

Please can all children arrive at school at 8.15am so that they can have breakfast with the class. This is very important for the children as it will help them feel settled and relaxed for the morning's tests.
